- CLARA SHORTRIDGE FOLTZ:
"FIRST WOMAN" ..... Barbara Allen Babcock 673

Professor Babcock recounts the life of Clara Shortridge Foltz, California's first woman lawyer. She reconstructs Foltz's entry into the legal profession and her accomplishments as an early suffragist.

Articles

- NOW YOU HAVE IT, NOW YOU DON'T:
THE DEPOSITARY BANK'S RIGHTS OF CHARGE-BACK AND SET-OFF ..... Gregory M. Travalio 719

Professor Travalio examines the right of a depositary bank to charge back a customer's account when an item is returned unpaid. He asserts that courts have misunderstood and misapplied the charge-back right. Travalio also analyzes depositary bank's right to set off the funds in a customer's account.

- VISIONS OF FAIRNESS—THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN JURISDICTION AND
CHOICE-OF-LAW ..... Earl M. Maltz 751

Professor Maltz examines the relationship between personal jurisdiction and choice-of-law and analyzes the Supreme Court's approach to both. He argues that the Court's approach reflects a concept of fairness that appropriately restricts personal jurisdiction rather than choice-of-law.

- AGENCY INTERPRETATIONS AND JUDICIAL REVIEW: A SEARCH FOR LIMITATIONS ON THE
CONTROLLING EFFECT GIVEN AGENCY
STATUTORY CONSTRUCTIONS ..... Kevin W. Saunders 769

Professor Saunders examines the relationship between administrative agency interpretations and judicial review. He traces the development of the judiciary's grant of controlling effect to agency interpretations. Then, he suggests and evaluates three limitations on this grant.

- LAW ENFORCEMENT AND THE
SEPARATION OF POWERS ..... Gerard V. Bradley 801

Professor Bradley analyzes the interaction between law enforcement and the separation of powers. Using Watergate and Contragate as contemporary examples of executive action, he discusses our tripartite scheme of government.
