

ARIZONA LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 22

1980

NUMBER 1

CONTENTS

Article

	Page
EQUAL PROTECTION AND THE SEARCH FOR JUSTICE	Julius Stone 1

The concepts of justice and equality lie at the heart of the equal protection clause. In examining the Bakke decision, the author argues that in pursuing justice, a society must do more than simply pursue equal treatment of its citizens. Rather, the notion of justice encompasses additional values.

Comment

UNITED STATES V. NEW MEXICO: PURPOSES THAT HOLD NO WATER	James F. Elliott 19
--	----------------------------

The author discusses and criticizes the Court's construction of statutory purposes under the non-Indian reserved water rights doctrine.

Appellate Decisions 1978-79:

CONTENTS	49
I. CIVIL PROCEDURE	51
II. CIVIL RIGHTS	79
III. COMMERCIAL LAW	109
IV. COMMUNITY PROPERTY	131
V. CONSTITUTIONAL LAW	141
VI. CRIMINAL LAW	187
VII. CRIMINAL PROCEDURE	211
VIII. INDIAN LAW	249
IX. INSURANCE LAW	263
X. MINING LAW	297
XI. REAL ESTATE LAW	311
XII. TORTS	321