SOME THOUGHTS ABOUT A GENERAL RULE..... Justice John Paul Stevens	599
In discussing the Supreme Court's recent decision in Gannett Co. v. DePasquale, Justice Stevens' analyzes what he characterizes as a general rule: that a sharp distinction must be drawn between first amendment protections afforded to the dissemination of information or ideas on the one hand, and the acquisition of newsworthy matter on the other.
BELIEF AND DOUBT IN MALICIOUS PROSECUTION AND LIBEL..... Dan B. Dobbs	607
Through an analogy to the level of fault required to sustain an action for libel, the author challenges the logic of the Restatement's subjective doubt rule in malicious prosecution actions.
THE SUPREME COURT AND LABOR LAW: THE OCTOBER 1978 TERM William B. Gould	621
The author examines the important labor law decisions of the Supreme Court's 1978 Term.
JOINT OWNERSHIP BEFORE AND AFTER THE TAX REFORM ACT William W. Stuart	659
The author examines the tax treatment of joint tenancies before and after the Tax Reform Act of 1976 and the Revenue Act of 1978.
A WAY OUT OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY JURISDICTION TANGLE John M. Rogers	689
The author examines the troubled area of federal jurisdiction over disputes arising under the Social Security Act, especially those that involve constitutional claims.
THE DUTY TO PROVIDE ADEQUATE PROTECTION: LANDOWNERS' LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO PROTECT PATRONS FROM CRIMINAL ATTACK Michael J. Bazylar	727
The author argues that tort law should impose a duty upon the commercial landowner to take adequate precautions to protect patrons from criminal attack.

Notes & Comments

- ARTIFICIAL GESTATION: NEW MEANING FOR THE RIGHT TO TERMINATE PREGNANCY Robert J. Favole 755
 The ability to artificially gestate humans is on the horizon. The author predicts the course of the development of this technology and analyzes its probable impact on the constitutionally founded privacy right to terminate a pregnancy.
- MURDER SCENE WARRANTLESS SEARCHES: A PROPOSAL Joseph M. Sholder 777
 The author analyzes the permissible scope of warrantless searches at murder scenes.
- TRANSFERRING SWEDISH CITY PLANNING TECHNIQUES TO ARIZONA Ann R. Littrell 795
 The author recommends that three land use planning tools used by Swedish planners—land banks, the separation of development rights from ownership rights, and regional planning—be used in Arizona.
- IMPEACHMENT OF JURY VERDICTS IN ARIZONA Jeffrey D. Buchanan 821
 Challenging general nonimpeachment rules, the author suggests a revision of Arizona's Evidence Rule 606(b) using Arizona's Criminal Rule of Procedure 24.1 as a model.
- FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BOSTON V. BELLOTTI: THE REOPENING OF THE CORPORATE MOUTH—THE CORPORATION'S RIGHT TO FREE SPEECH Mark P. Goss 841
 The author discusses the merits of granting first amendment protection to corporate political spending in state referendum issues and suggests that such corporate participation should be extended to federal elections.
- CAREY V. PIPHUS AND REMEDYING CONSTITUTIONAL TORTS Brett L. Dunkelman 871
 Plaintiffs asserting claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 might have difficulty recovering damages for dignitary harm if they are required to make a showing of actual damages. The author examines the scope of the actual damage rule applied by the Supreme Court in Carey v. Piphus.
- INTERIM AWARDS OF ATTORNEYS' FEES UNDER THE CIVIL RIGHTS ATTORNEY'S FEES AWARD ACT OF 1976 Grace Atwell Visca 893
 A recent attorneys' fees awards statute creates the possibility of interim fees awards during the course of protracted civil rights litigation. The author explores the availability and utility of interim awards and suggests guidelines for judicial discretion.
