PENNOYER'S DEMISE: PERSONAL JURISDICTION AFTER SHAFFER AND KULKO AND A MODEST PREDICTION ON WORLD-WIDE VOLKSWAGEN CORP. V. WOODSON.....	Winton D. Woods	861
--	------------------------	-----

The doctrines of personal jurisdiction that have developed over the years are both complex and confusing. The author examines these doctrines in light of the recent Supreme Court decisions in Shaffer v. Heitner and Kulko v. Superior Court and the decisions in several Arizona cases. A three-step analytical model is developed by the author to help unravel the complexities of personal jurisdiction.

Notes

THE PROPOSED GOOD FAITH TEST FOR FOURTH AMENDMENT EXCLUSION COMPARED TO THE § 1983 GOOD FAITH DEFENSE: PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS	John R. Hoopes	915
--	-----------------------	-----

Courts and commentators have suggested that regardless of any illegality in a search and seizure, evidence should not be excluded if, in coming upon the evidence, the police officer acted in good faith. The writer evaluates the viability of this standard by comparing it with the section 1983 good faith defense.

UNIFORM RULES FOR A COMBINED TRANSPORT DOCUMENT IN LIGHT OF THE PROPOSED REVISION OF THE HAGUE RULES	Thomas K. Chenal	953
---	-------------------------	-----

Liability incurred through use of alternative modes of transportation is governed by different international conventions, each establishing its particular liability scheme. The author examines problems peculiar to containerized cargo and proposes a liability scheme to govern losses not covered by other conventions.
