INEFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL

CLAIMS: NEW USES, NEW PROBLEMS ..... 443

Against a background of the growth of ineffective assistance of counsel claims and the reasons for that growth, this Article explores several areas of the law governing the claim which are still in a state of transition. The author focuses on the new stages of counsel representation to which the claim is being increasingly applied and to the recent development of the claim as one recurringly used to negate the forfeiture of a remedy otherwise resulting from counsel's failure to assert rights in a timely fashion. Particular attention is given to this latter area in light of the Supreme Court's recent reemphasis of foreclosure notions in collateral attack litigation.
