

INDIGENOUS STEWARDS

A special thank you to the following individuals for all of their continued hardwork, dedication, and continued support in making this magazine possible

SWEHSC Staff

Marti Lindsey, PhD
Nathan Cherrington, PhD
Gilbert Lujan Rivera, Jr.
Amy Weisbaum
IngriOue Salt
Linda Don
Sylvia Kneist
Anahi Herrera
Brittany Brooke Moreno
Gary Leslie

Our Contributors

Ryan Smith
Karletta Chief, PhD
Ruben Cu:k Ba'ak
Larry Campbell
Jamie Donatuto
Edward Schuyler Chew
San Carlos Secondary School
Ha:sañ Preparatory & Leadership
School
Ace Charette
Kiana Kaye
Monica Yellowhair, PhD
Lisa Robbins
Carrie Nuva Joseph
Michael Kotutwa Johnson

Additional Supporters

Anna Spitz
Agnese Nelms Haury Grant
Program
AISES
NASEP
ITCA
ITEP
Ginny Geib
Darla Keneston
Indigenous Stewards Advisory Board

CONTENTS

INDIGENOUS LEADERSHIP

5

Karletta Chief, PhD discusses her work in Indigenous communities and how she manages her personal life.

CONTRIBUTORS

11

Our second annual student literature and photography contributors focused on environmental issues faced by Indigenous communities.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

21

SWEHSC provides youth conferences and Earth Day outreach activities to high schools students in various communities across Arizona.

COVER ART BY RYAN SMITH

9

“The image is untitled, but it represents the area I’m from, the Colorado River and the fish that live within it. Recently, there was a mine spill at the Gold King Mine in Northern Arizona which spilt contaminants into the Animas River, a tributary of the San Juan River and part of the Colorado River System.”

ART

14

NEOGLYPHIX highlights social justice issues to engage youth in artistically expressing their artistic abilities in a positive manner.

TRIBAL FORUM

25

The first annual tribal forum was hosted at the Desert Diamond Casino in Southern Arizona in which tribal environmental professionals discussed various topics.

PATHWAYS

17

In this issue, Yellowhair & Joseph talk about how their research benefits their home communities.

RESOURCES

26

STUDENT & COMMUNITY Various programs are available to Native students offered both by SWEHSC and the UA.

