SEVENTH CENTRAL EUROPEAN CONFERENCE OF EGYPTOLOGISTS

EGYPT 2015: PERSPECTIVES OF RESEARCH

ZAGREB, CROATIA

JUNE 2 - 7, 2015

In 2015, the Seventh Central European Conference of Egyptologists. Egypt 2015: Perspectives of Research will be held at the University of Zagreb in Zagreb, Croatia. It is co-organized by a few scholarly institutions, that is by the above-mentioned Department of History, The Center for Croatian Studies, the University of Zagreb (Dr Mladen Tomorad), Croatia, the Archaeological Museum in Zagreb, Croatia (Igor Uranić), the Croatian Association for Medical Anthropology of the Croatian Medical Association (Mislav Čavka), and the Department of Ancient Cultures of the Pułusk Academy of Humanities in Pułusk, Poland (Dr Joanna Popielska-Grzybowska)

HISTORY OF THE CECE CONFERENCES

First meeting took place in Warsaw in 1999. The idea came from Dr Andrzej Ćwiek supported by Dr Joanna Popielska-Grzybowska and Joanna Kociankowska-Bożek of the Institute of Archaeology of the Warsaw University. Except for three first symposia held in Warsaw in 1999, 2001 and 2004, the Conference was organised in Budapest in 2006 (Dr Andreas Gulyas). The Fifth Conference was hosted by the Pułusk Academy of Humanities in Pułusk, organized by Dr Joanna Popielska-Grzybowska in 2009 and the Sixth in Cracow by the Institute of Archaeology of the Jagiellonian University (Dr Mariusz Jucha, Dr Joanna Dębowska-Ludwin and Dr Piotr Kołodziejczyk) We would not like the conference title including Central Europe to be any kind of restriction. It was named Central as it was organized for the first time in Poland. Initially it was a conference directed to younger generations, but not exclusively and all young at hearts were always invited as well. As time went the organizers became older and older and consequently the conference changed its profile. However, all the time it is intended to present current research and its perspectives covering possibly all spheres of interest in present-day Egyptology.
