INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF EGYPTOLOGISTS XI FLORENCE, ITALY AUGUST 23 – 30, 2015

The ICE XI is organized jointly by the Soprintendenza per i Beni Archeologici della Toscana, Egyptian Museum - University of Florence, and CAMNES (Center for Ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern Studies).

PARTICIPANTS

The Congress will be an open forum for all branches of Egyptology with access for junior and senior scholars. Participants will represent the broadest range and highest standards of Egyptology. Required title for presenting a paper or a poster: Master Degree (MA) or equivalent. To present a paper or a poster, speakers and authors of posters must be members of the International Association of Egyptologists (IAE; Professional or Student Membership only)

ABSTRACTS

Abstracts submitted for papers and posters should be no longer than 1500 characters, the title must not exceed 200 characters (both including spaces).

ABSTRACTS SUBMISSIONS OCTOBER 13TH 2014 – JANUARY 26TH 2015

Peer review of submitted abstracts will determine acceptance. Information on accepted proposals will be sent to the authors, via e-mail, by February 28th 2015. The abstracts of the accepted papers will be published on the official website by May 2015. To submit an abstract please fill-in the registration form on the official website: www.ice11florence.org.

DISCIPLINES & THEMES

Papers will be grouped in different sessions dedicated to the following themes:

1. Archaeology: current methods and fieldwork
2. Art & Architecture
3. The Egyptian Heritage Today: conservation, preservation, management.

4. History
5. History of Egyptology
6. Language, Literature & Texts
7. Material Culture (pottery & craftsmanship)
8. Museums & Collections
9. Religion
10. Society & Religion

The list is subject to change. The named themes are merely intended to provide a focus of discussion. Papers will be assigned to individual sessions within these wider themes according to the submitted abstracts. Papers that do not fit into a theme will be placed in the major disciplines of archaeology, art, religion and philology.

ONLY FOR EGYPTIAN PARTICIPANTS

The IAE will subsidize the registration fees of younger Egyptian scholars who will present papers at the Congress. These include MA graduates, PhD students, junior inspectors or museum employees, and academics at the level of Assistant Professor or University Lecturer. Depending on the number of such scholars who will attend, the IAE may be able to subsidize all or a part of their registration fees. Note that only IAE members are allowed to present papers at the Congress. All Egyptian colleagues who wish to take advantage of this subsidy must also be members of the IAE. Egyptian colleagues will be able to pay the pre-registration fee as well as IAE membership dues at the Congress itself due to the difficulty of international payments from Egypt. Egyptian colleagues who wish to take advantage of the subsidy are required to notify the General Secretary (secretary@iae-egyptology.org) before April 30th, 2015 of their intention to attend the Congress. This will help the IAE judge the amount of support requested.

FULL REGISTRATION INCLUDES:

- In-person congress session presentation;
- The option to submit your paper to the proceedings, and participate in the refereeing process;
- Attendance to all plenary and parallel sessions;
- Congress welcome kit (badge, bag, pen, program, abstracts, city plans etc.);
