

Future Conferences

EGYPT IN ITS AFRICAN CONTEXT

THE MANCHESTER MUSEUM
UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER, UK
OCTOBER 3–4, 2009

The aims of this conference are to address perceptions of ancient Egypt in scholarly writing and public understanding in the West, to present the work of scholars studying African-centered Egyptology, to offer a scholarly approach to the subject of Egypt in Africa that counterbalances the extreme Afrocentric views within which such a debate is often contextualized, and to investigate how community groups and professional Egyptologists can transfer their knowledge and points of view. Key speakers include:

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| SALLY-ANN ASHTON | SENIOR ASSISTANT KEEPER, DEPARTMENT OF ANTIQUITIES, THE FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM, CAMBRIDGE |
| ABADAYO FOLORUNSO | PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF ARCHAEOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY, UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN, IBADAN, NIGERIA |
| MAULENA KARENGA | PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF AFRICANA STUDIES, CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, USA |
| SHOMARKA KEITA | RESEARCH AFFILIATE WITH THE NATIONAL HUMAN GENOME CENTER, HOWARD UNIVERSITY, AND THE DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY, SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION, USA |
| JOSÉ LINGNA NAFAFÉ | LECTURER, DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY, THE UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM, UK |
| KIMANI NEHUSI | SENIOR LECTURER, CASS SCHOOL OF EDUCATION, UNIVERSITY OF EAST LONDON, UK |

Egypt in its African Context is organized in association with the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge, and with the support of the Petrie Museum of Egyptian Archaeology. Abstracts of no more than 500 words, including full contact details, should be e-mailed to conference organizer Karen Exell at karen.exell@manchester.ac.uk. Closing date for abstracts is July 31, 2009.