

Future Conferences

16TH SYMPOSIUM ON MEDITERRANEAN ARCHAEOLOGY

FLORENCE, ITALY

MARCH 1-3, 2012

The 16th Symposium on Mediterranean Archaeology will be held in Florence from the 1st to the 3rd of March 2012. The symposium will be organized jointly by the University of Florence, CAMNES (Center for Ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern Studies) and GAMA (General Association of Mediterranean Archaeology) under the patronage of the City of Florence.

The main topic of the Symposium will be "IDENTITY & CONNECTIVITY".

Papers will be grouped in different sessions dedicated to the different regions of the Mediterranean:

1. Western Mediterranean
2. Central Mediterranean
3. Aegean and Eastern Mediterranean
4. Near East and Egypt
5. Mediterranean Interactions

For further information, registration procedure and submission of abstracts see the Symposium circular posted at:

http://www.soma2012florence.net/Info/1st_CIRCULAR.html

(Deadline: January 15, 2012)

The information may be downloaded at:

http://www.soma2012florence.net/Info/1st_CIRCULAR_files/SOMA%201st%20Circular.pdf

For further information, write to: info@soma2012florence.net

The Organization Committee
16th SOMA - 16th Symposium on Mediterranean Archaeology www.soma2012florence.net
info@soma2012florence.net