

EDITORS' NOTE

Welcome to the first issue of El Two Talk. We would like to take this opportunity to extend our appreciation to a number of people for making this publication possible. Dr. Muriel Saville-Troike and Dr. Donna M. Johnson deserve very special thanks for their willingness to serve as our faculty advisors. We also want to express our gratitude to the SLAT faculty members who were kind enough to write responses to the papers presented in this issue. Thanks to Constance Herron and Dawn Miller, the SLAT administrative assistants, for their valuable help. The cover for this volume was designed by So Yen Lee, a graduate student in graphic design at the University of Arizona. Her talents are greatly appreciated. Financial support for this first issue has been kindly provided by the SLAT Program. Finally, we want to acknowledge all of the SLAT students who gave us their support, and especially those who contributed to this volume.

We would like to remind our readers that the papers in this volume are working papers and that, as such, any reference to them should make mention of their preliminary nature. In addition, reproduction of any paper should only be made with the consent of the author.

We are very interested in arranging exchanges of working papers with other programs. We also plan to make subscriptions available for future issues. Submissions from outside our program are encouraged. Inquiries concerning submissions, subscriptions, or exchanges should be addressed to:
