

EDITORS' NOTE

To old friends and new alike, welcome to the second issue of El Two Talk. We would like to express our appreciation to the members of the SLAT Program Executive Council for their continued support of these working papers. We would especially like to thank them for once again funding the costs of publication and mailing. Thanks also are in order for the kind support of the students in our program, as well as for the hard work of those students whose papers were selected.

Once again, we wish to encourage submissions from outside our program. Information about deadlines and format may be obtained by writing to the managing editor at the address below. If you wish to use e-mail, you may send a message to the program office at: azslat@ccit.arizona.edu, and ask for the e-mail address of the current managing editor.
