

About the Authors

Andrew Schenck (adschenck@fhsu.edu) is currently an Assistant Professor of English at Fort Hays State University. He has taught English for over 20 years, serving at universities located in the United States, South Korea, and China. While working, he managed to complete an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership with a specialization in English and a Ph.D. in English Language and Literature. His research interests include explicit grammar instruction, second language acquisition, and English literature.

Angélica Ribeiro (ribeiro475@hotmail.com) is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Houston-Clear Lake. She teaches courses on second language acquisition. She has more than 25 years of experience in ESL/EFL in Brazil and in the United States. Her research interests include language learning beyond the classroom, learner agency, emotions in language learning, and technology in second language development. She is the author of How to Create Happiness at Work and Running into Happiness. She is passionate about preparing future language teachers and spreading positivity.

Ta Hong Thuong (thuongth@tlu.edu.vn) is a Lecturer of Chinese language in the School of International Education at Thuy Loi University in Hanoi, Vietnam. She received her PhD in Curriculum and Instruction at National University of Tainan, Taiwan. She is a former Vietnamese as a foreign language teacher in Taiwanese universities. Her research interests focus on contrastive linguistics, second language teaching and acquisition, and language assessment.

Hsiu-Shuang Huang (hshu@mail.nutn.edu.tw) is a Professor at National University of Tainan. She received her PhD in Psychology at the University of Liverpool. She has more than 30 years of research experience in reading instruction and educational psychology in Taiwan. Her research interests focus on language processing and word recognition.