ISL CONSENSUS 2020 DOCUMENT UPDATE

(<http://www.u.arizona.edu/~witte/ISL.htm>)

A discussion will take place at the next International Congress of Lymphology (September 2019) concerning updates to the ISL Consensus Document on the diagnosis and treatment of peripheral lymphedema. Please send any comments or suggestions for changes, deletions, additions, or clarifications to the Central Office for inclusion of items for discussion. (grace@surgery.arizona.edu)

Call for ISL Officer Nominations

Nominations are now being received in the Central Office for ISL President-Elect (2-year term) and for 5 Executive Committee members for 4-year terms (maximum of 2 consecutive terms or 8 continuous years permitted), 2 members of the Nominating Committee, and 2 ISL-member Auditors. Nomination packets should include the nomination letter from an Active Member of the ISL (self-nominations are allowed) and a full biographical sketch (curriculum vitae), along with specific information on service and/or contributions to the ISL or ISL-affiliate chapters/societies (e.g., serving as ISL officer, or on ISL committees/taskforces, ISL and affiliate Congress organizer, Editor or reviewer of manuscripts for the journal Lymphology). Nomination packets should be sent to the Central Office for review by the Nominating Committee. Nominations will also be accepted for consideration by the Nominating Committee if received by noon on Wednesday, September 25th. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor at the General Assembly meeting. Nomination packets should be e-mailed to grace@surgery.arizona.edu or turned in at the ISL membership booth at the Congress.
