

Table of Contents

The Customs and Fashions of the Turks: Historiographical Trends and a Possible Hypothesis Based on Historical Context

Samantha Goodrich

5-24

Slavery, Dependency, and Obligation in the Early Modern Malay
Archipelago: Towards a Refashioned 'Slave Mode of Production'

Dean Messinger

25-42

Cloves, Slaves, and British Imperialism: The Rise and Fall of Omani
Plantation Slavery in Nineteenth Century Zanzibar

Nicole Crisp

43-62

Zabel Yessayan (1878-1942): At the Intersection of Armenian Nationalism and the Women's Movement

Andrew Wickersham

63-81

Fierce Fighters, Caring Mothers: State-Sponsored Feminism in Early Republican Turkey and the Dersim Question

Myrsini Manney-Kalogera

82-103

Winds of Change: New Women and the Bicycle around the Turn of the Twentieth Century

Audrey Lopez

104-129

Diné (Navajo) Youth Experiences in Education from 1928 to 1946

Monique Davila

130-149

Narratives of Technology and Self-Determination in the STARPAHC Project

Paul Jones

150-165

Overriding Democracy: American Intervention in Yeltsin's 1996 Reelection
Campaign

David Strickland

166-181